Gallery 5, the fine art gallery and studio of the Hervey Bay Art Society, is one of the Fraser Coast's hidden gems. Gallery 5 is open 7 days a week and there are always many beautiful local works of fine art on display. All works of art are for sale and entry to the gallery is free. If you are interested in fine art then a visit to this gallery is a must. Gallery 5 also conducts regular art sessions and workshops throughout the year. Anyone interested in beginning or progressing their art education can choose from tutored workshops and art classes or social painting groups. There is something for everyone interested in art, regardless of what stage you may be at in your art journey. So for all art aficionados come along to appreciate the artwork or join in to improve your talents at the hidden gem that is Gallery 5.
