Through one-on-one mentoring Mission Australia utilises a person-centered, strengths-based approach to develop an individually tailored job plan based on your circumstances that will help place jobseekers into meaningful, sustainable employment and/or education where appropriate.

If you are looking for employment or training opportunities and have a medical condition /disability that may affect the type of work you do (i.e. anxiety/depression, physical limitations, injury).

We may be able to help you, at no cost!

Our aim is to understand your strengths and abilities to better allow us to assist you on your path to achieve your long-term employment goals.
